

Labrador Transparency

Labrador Transparency Appoints Maud Mielvaque as Global CEO

Paris, Tuesday, January 20, 2026 – Maud Mielvaque joins Labrador Transparency as group Chief Executive Officer. Her appointment supports the next phase of the company's development, as it accelerates its transformation while consolidating its expertise in regulatory information in France, the United States and Asia.

Maud Mielvaque graduated from the Institut d'Études Politiques de Grenoble and the École de Management de Lyon. She began her international career at Procter & Gamble, then moved to Google, where she led major strategic restructuring and transformation projects. Since 2018, she's been bringing this knowledge to the environmental transition, helping companies rethink their models and roll out sustainable solutions.

As head of Labrador Transparency, Maud Mielvaque leads the expansion of an integrated solution combining consulting and technology. She guides the group's growth as it accelerates in new markets.

« Maud's appointment is a significant milestone for the Group. Her international experience and expertise in transition contexts will strengthen our ability to develop Labrador Transparency while remaining true to our mission: to make information clear, accessible, and useful to all. »

Laurent Rouyrès, Founder and President of Labrador Transparency

« I believe that helping companies improve information transparency is key to supporting economic and societal change. Joining Labrador Transparency means using innovation to create lasting impact for businesses and society. »

Maud Mielvaque, CEO of Labrador Transparency

About Labrador Transparency

Labrador Transparency is a leader in regulated information.

For 30 years, the Group has developed unique expertise in investor relations, financial communications, and ESG, combining consulting, design, and technology.

The company counts 350 professionals in France, the United States, and the Philippines.

www.labrador-transparency.com